

The Legacy Project

"Telling Our Story"

Support Healing. Honor Caregivers. Grow Hope.

This November, Hope Grows will host two caregiver retreats at the Iris Respite House, each serving 10–12 caregivers. These small-group experiences provide space for reflection, restoration, and storytelling — a journey toward healing and legacy.

The Legacy Project is a multi-phase initiative designed to capture and share caregiver stories that educate, inspire, and heal. Phase 1 focuses on these retreats. Future phases will include a book featuring caregiver reflections and a documentary film sharing their voices with the broader community — building awareness and advocacy for compassionate, holistic caregiving. Your sponsorship makes these retreats possible.
